Grand Knight's Message

December is an incredibly special month. Not only do we commemorate the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ, it's a great opportunity to reflect upon life's gifts while celebrating with family and friends. December ends another year and reminds us to appreciate life: Tempus Fugit, Memento Mori – Time Flies, Remember Death. We did so as a Council on November 15th when Worthy Chaplain Msgr. Jim Forsen & Past Worthy Chaplain Msgr. Charles Hill co-celebrated our annual Memorial Mass. A big thank you goes out to our wonderful priests, those who attended, to PGK's Paul Condran and Mike Rachford for organizing the event, and Abel Hernandez for providing refreshments.

We also remember our many Brothers & Sisters who were denied their right to live, through no choice of their own. As secular society moves to increase the number of abortions in the world, we come together in prayer to preserve the dignity of life from birth through natural death. I invite you to join Fr. Emil Kapaun Council #3744 and Fr. Hawe 4th Degree Assembly #45 as we jointly pay tribute to the Holy Innocents through recitation of the Rosary at Holy Cross Cemetery's Shrine to the Unborn. It will take place on Saturday, December 17th, beginning at 2:00 PM, led by 4th Degree Knight Fr. Matt Wheeler of Visitation Church. If you need directions to the shrine, stop by the Holy Cross guard shack upon entering the Slauson Avenue gate and a representative will point the way.

Lastly, I would like to invite you to attend our upcoming 3-in-1 exemplification at the Hall. We will install new Brother Knights of Columbus and elevate others to the 3rd Degree. All Knights, their families, and friends are welcome to attend this special ceremony on Tuesday, December 13th at 7:00 PM. Check-in for candidates is 6:00 PM. The exemplification is open to perspective Knights not only from Council 3744, but neighboring councils as well. Contact Membership Coordinator Chris Lopez, PGK, (310) 463-3726, for details and information. In preparation, we held recruitment drives at all three of our parishes during the past few months. Special thanks to Fraternal Insurance Agent Alfred Lugo for his invaluable assistance.

New Council & Holding Company Policies

In an effort to better keep track of our property, any member wishing to borrow a Council or Holding Company owned item must first receive permission from either the Council's Warden, or the Holding Company's Rental Agent. No exceptions. Also, due to recent problems involving our trash collection, anyone wishing to discard bulky items in our trash dumpsters must first receive approval from the Rental Agent. The same is true for long-term parking of automobiles in our lot. Thank you for your cooperation.

- Grand Knight Mike Dorn

A Season for Giving

The season for giving is officially upon us. Charity, Unity, Fraternity, and Patriotism. Of these, Charity is the most important. I've been a longtime supporter of a wonderful cause going back to my days as a parishioner at St. Joan of Arc Church in West LA. Started by Fr. Fred Byaruhanga, a very special priest from Africa, Uganda AIDS Orphan Children Foundation (UAOCF) is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization that provides care to vulnerable Ugandan children whose parents died during an AIDS epidemic in the country. Education is key to success. UAOCF does everything it can to support orphaned children from primary school through vocational school & university.

UAOCF provides consistent assistance with education, health care, and daily needs, primarily to those in the underserved and rural populations of the Kabale, Rukungiri, Kisoro, and Kanungu districts. This wonderful organization ensures that compassionate, quality assistance is given to these Ugandan children; with a high standard of care and respect for individual dignity and well-being throughout childhood, as well as their educational careers – from the time they enroll in school until graduation.

During this season for giving, I ask that you join me in making a donation to UAOCF. A gift of $25 or more will allow their team in Uganda to purchase a few articles of clothing for orphaned children to wear on Christmas Day. Please visit www.UAOCF.org to learn more about this incredible foundation. Tax deductible donations can be mailed to: UAOCF, P.O. Box 64485, Los Angeles, CA 90064. Please consider brightening the lives of our African Brothers and Sisters in Christ. Thank you.

Remembering Our Departed

Our Council paid tribute to six Brother Knights: Albert Ward, Rocco Farello Sr., Norman Bisho, Frederick Castner, Joseph Sakamaki & Rick Daza, and one Lady Knight, Anne Gingras, who passed away in 2022. Family members and friends were also remembered during our Council's annual memorial mass in November. Thank you to everyone who attended this solemn and important event.

Golf Report

A nice turnout of KC golfers played on a nice November afternoon, and we all enjoyed having our guest, Martin Billups, show us how great golf can be played. Martin scored a three over par 67. Played at our usual Westchester Golf Course, Martin's birdies on holes 6 and 11 were the only birdies of the day. Spread among seven players all 9 of the par 3 closest to the pin awards were captured, first that has happened in a while.

Our next Westchester tournament, the last for 2022, is on Sunday, December 4 at the Westchester Golf Course. Our first Tee Time will be at the usual 11:00 and we request everyone be there at least 15 minutes before their tee times.

All of our KC members and guests are invited.
Hope to see you there!
